

WOMEN IN LEADERSHIP

Apprenticeship Programme

In a world where diversity is the lifeblood of a thriving organisation, Tack TMI, part of Gi Group Holding, have launched a Women in Leadership programme helping businesses pioneer female leadership to deliver organisational excellence.

Championing female leaders and managers, this collaborative programme - which is underpinned by the L5 Operations Manager apprenticeship programme - promotes growth and development to enable organisations and their female leaders to thrive in a modern, working environment.

Delivery and themed learning interactions

- Collaborative group workshops
- 1:1 coaching
- Action learning sets
- Access to motivational speakers – female leaders
- Masterclasses
- Power hours
- Virtual and e-learning
- Webinars
- Coaching and mentoring
- Allyships

Who is the programme for?

Tier 1: Aspirational female leaders and managers looking to take the next step on their leadership journey

Tier 2: Women in a leadership post looking for skills enhancement, professional development, & personal growth

Knowledge, skills & behaviours

- Leading people
- Operational management
- Self-Awareness in leadership
- Leading with agility
- Delivering organisational performance
- Project management
- Finance in business
- Strategic relationships
- Inclusive leadership

Duration

18-24 months (The programme is underpinned by L5 Operations Manager apprenticeship)

Programme additions

- Up to 7 hours Executive coaching
- Women in Leadership 360 psychometric assessment
- Embedded CMI Leadership qualification

Our global learning & development practice harnesses international expertise to deliver UK businesses high quality and impactful apprenticeship programmes

Masterclasses and themes

Fierce and feminine: Building your personal brand as a female leader in the workplace

The power of neurodiversity: Strategies to harness the power of neurodiversity to enable women to thrive as successful leaders

From barriers to breakthroughs: Strategies for women to succeed in leadership

The empathy advantage: Developing assertive compassion & empathy in female leadership

Leading the charge: Empowering women leaders to drive change in the workplace

Women in the vanguard: Empowering female leaders to drive diversity and inclusion in the workplace

Re-writing the narrative: Strategies for female leaders to transform their inner critic into their biggest ally

The menopause mindset: Unlocking the keys to professional success for women

Conscious leadership: Empowering female leadership on unconscious bias and drive positive change

How is the programme funded?

Funding value is £7,000.

If you are an organisation that pays into the Apprenticeship Levy, the programme will be fully funded through the levy.

If you are a small to medium sized business that does not pay the Apprenticeship Levy or, if you are an organisation which has fully utilised its levy for the year, you will pay 5% of the funding value with the Government subsidising 95%.

EXCLUSIVE OFFER FROM GI GROUP HOLDING:

If you are a business required to pay 5% of the funding value, Gi Group Holding will cover the 5% cost through levy funding transfer. This offer is subject to availability.

Register your interest by clicking here

W: tacktmiglobal.com T: 01923 897 900 E: UK@Tacktmiglobal.com

